61ST NATIONAL SQUARE DANCE CONVENTION 2012 IN SPOKANE

The Ghost Riders Square Dance Band from California will be appearing at the 61st National Square Dance Convention in Spokane, Washington starting Wednesday night at the Trails-End dance. They have been playing since 1972 and are square dancers turned musicians. Come and enjoy the experience of dancing with a live band! Be sure to visit the website at www.61nsdc.com. There are tours of Washington State or Glacier National Park you can take from June 24-26 before the Convention. Or you can visit the Riverfront Rotary Fountain in Riverfront Park; the "larger than life" Red Wagon where the handle doubles as a slide; the Garbage Goat from Expo '74; or the Seattle Underground City.

NOW is the time to go to a local club and take lessons so you can be there in June. Classes will be closing SOON so go to www.utsquare-dance.org to find the club near you or the day that works for you. Or call Sandy Dagsen at 801-996-3633.
